Meeting Facility

The workshop will be held at a hotel in Larnaca, Cyprus. As soon as details are confirmed, you will be sent the information.

Funding

We asked in the Call for Papers that presenters attempt to secure funding for travel to the workshop and accommodation. Some of you have indicated that this would be possible either as full or partial funding. For those who do not have any funding from their institutions, The New Transparency project is able to offer you funding to cover economy-fare travel and three nights at the hotel. The New Transparency Project will book your room on your behalf. Plan to arrive the evening of Friday, 5 December and depart Monday, 8 December.

Please indicate your situation by selecting one of the choices below:

Travel and Accommodation

Please indicate your point of departure in coming to the workshop:

You are encouraged to make your own travel arrangements. If you receive New Transparency travel funding, the price of your ticket may not exceed the economy fare quoted by Odyssey Travel, the workshop's preferred travel agency (address next page).

Important: If you receive New Transparency travel funding, you are required to retain all boarding passes, and passenger tickets/receipts related to your travel to/from the workshop. Please submit these to Joan Sharpe, Project Administrator when your travel is completed.
